

19th June 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

A warm welcome to this weeks newsletter. We have all been very busy preparing school for our returning year 6 children starting next week. We have been making sure all plans and risk assessments are in place. We have also had a significant increase in the number of key worker children in school too. We look forward to welcoming our children next week and we continue to miss all the children who are yet to return. All of our priorities are to ensure the safety of our children and their families during this difficult time.

Science Activities

Although the Great science share is now over, there are still investigations that children can carry out at home. Miss Bradley would like all our children to have a go at the science activities attached to this newsletter and to be posted on our twitter and website page. Families can also visit the science fun at home part of this website.

We would love to hear from all our scientists and how your experiments went.

Well Done

A huge well done to all our children who are trying their best with their learning at home. Just try and do what you can and remember to limit your time online.
