

Oddizzi World Explorers

KS1 Week 4 - Country close up

Login details

To access online resources please go to www.oddizzi.com/schools/login

Oddizzi subscribers: Use your oddizzi class login and password.

Map skills

Can you name the countries of the United Kingdom?

Label the countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom on the UK countries and capitals map. If you live in the UK can you add where you live on the map?

Online investigator

Login to www.oddizzi.com and click on explore the world - country close up - Scotland - landscape

Look through the information on Scotland's human and physical features. On your Name Scotland's physical and human features sheet, fill in the feature types. Can you also sort the features into human and physical?

Quiz time

Login to www.oddizzi.com.

Click on Quiz at the top of the page. Find the United Kingdom quiz. We suggest trying Level 1.

See how many points you can score!

Putting pen to paper

Login to www.oddizzi.com and click on explore the world - country close up - Scotland - landscape

Imagine you are on a cycling holiday in Scotland. What would you see? Write a postcard home to tell someone about your adventures! Don't forget to draw a picture of your favourite feature you see!

What if...

Discuss this made up scenario with your family over breakfast or dinner.

What if...everyone in the UK wanted to live in Scotland?

Watch this

Login to www.oddizzi.com and click on explore the world - country close up - United Kingdom - landscape - physical features - islands - Orkney life
Watch : Orkney Islands

1. Make a list of any physical and human features that you see during your flight.
2. What's the weather like here?
3. How does the landscape of the Orkneys compare to where you live?

Read it

Read the guided reading text United Kingdom (Year 1 or Year 2).

You might like to read this with an adult.

Once you have finished, answer the questions.

UK Countries and Capitals

Do you know the names of the UK's countries and capitals?

Check Oddizzi's map or an atlas if you're not sure!

1. Can you label the four countries and capital cities of the UK on the map?
2. Where do you live? If you're based in the UK, add an extra label to show this too.

Extend it!

What are each of the four countries of the UK famous for? Can you name a place or person linked to each?

Name Scotland's physical and human features

St Andrews Links	Ben Nevis	Forth Railway Bridge	Loch Ness

Balmoral Castle	Galloway	North Sea Oil Field	Old Man of Hoy

Bridge

Castle

Forest

Golf course

Lake

Mountain

Oil rig

Stack

Scotland - human or physical features?

Cut along the dotted lines. Sort the pictures into human and physical features.

Golf course

St Andrews Links

Mountain

Ben Nevis

Bridge

Forth Railway Bridge

Lake

Loch Ness

Castle

Balmoral Castle

Forest

Galloway

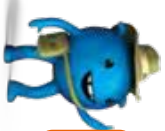

Oil rig

North Sea Oil Field

Stack

Old Man of Hoy

Scotland - human or physical features?

Human Features

Physical Features

The United Kingdom

The United Kingdom is a country in Europe.

People call it 'the UK' for short.

There are four smaller countries inside the UK: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

Buckingham Palace

Each of these smaller countries has its own flag and capital city.

The capital of England is London. This is where the Queen lives.

Edinburgh Castle

The capital of Scotland is Edinburgh.

Edinburgh Castle is built on a big rock. It is called Castle Rock.

Ben Nevis

There are many cities, towns and villages in the UK.

The highest mountain in the UK is Ben Nevis. It is in Scotland.

Key words:

capital

castle

cities

countries

villages

Guided Reading – The UK Discussion Sheet

Before Reading – Prediction activity

Ask your students these questions before and after reading the text. Have students skim the text to help with prediction before reading.

Statement	Before	Reading	After	Reading
	Yes	No	Yes	No
A. The United Kingdom is a country.
B. The Queen lives in England.
C. There are only cities in the United Kingdom.
D. There are castles in the United Kingdom.

During Reading – Help with pronunciation, understanding and decoding.

After Reading – Have students complete the following activities on an erasable white board or on a blank sheet of paper. Students should share responses after each question. You can document responses below.

1. Name one country in the United Kingdom.
2. What is the capital of England?
3. Write a new word you have learned in this text. (Check spelling)
4. Name one physical feature found in the United Kingdom.

Notes:

THE UNITED KINGDOM

Finish the sentences.

1. The United Kingdom is a country in _____.
2. The highest mountain in the UK is _____.

Tick the answer.

3. How many countries are there in the UK?

4 ☐

8 ☐

2 ☐

1 ☐

4. The capital of England is...

Paris ☐

London ☐

Leeds ☐

Edinburgh ☐

Answer the question below.

5. Why do you think Edinburgh Castle is built on a big rock?

Tell Odd one thing you know about the United Kingdom.

THE UNITED KINGDOM

1. Draw lines to fix the broken sentences.

The United Kingdom is called big rock.

The capital of England is the UK for short.

Edinburgh Castle is built on a

London.

2. Name the four countries inside the UK.

3. The capital letters and full stop are missing. Put them back in.

the capital of england is london

4. Choose a word from the box to finish the sentences.

capital

villages

countries

Castle

Edinburgh _____ is built on a big rock.

There are many cities, towns and _____ in the UK.

UNITED KINGDOM

Where is the UK?

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is in northern Europe.

The UK is its shorter name!

The UK is in northern Europe

One country or four?

The United Kingdom is made up of four smaller countries:

- England
- Wales
- Scotland
- Northern Ireland

They each have their own football teams, flags and governments. The UK's Prime Minister is the person in charge. The Queen is the Head of State.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II

Duart Castle, Isle of Mull, Scotland

Human features

The United Kingdom has many cities, including London and Edinburgh. They are home to cathedrals, shopping centres and parks.

There are also lots of smaller towns and villages across the country. The UK has many castles too.

Physical features

The UK has lots of green countryside, national parks, rivers and mountains.

Here are some of the most famous physical features: the South Downs, with its white cliffs, the Lake District and the Scottish Highlands.

Seven Sisters chalk cliffs, South Downs

Animals and birds

There are many types of wild animals in the UK. Bats, badgers, foxes, rabbits and river otters can all be found in England. In Scotland lives the red deer, it is a large mammal with huge antlers.

There are more than 500 different types of birds to spot in the UK. The robin, blackbird and magpie are all common birds.

There are even wild, green parrots in South London and Surrey!

Red deer

Many cultures

Over 64 million people live in the United Kingdom. Many of these have strong links to other countries around the world. People in their family may live abroad.

Some people living in the UK follow cultural traditions, like wearing clothing, that are linked to their religion.

In the UK, people enjoy the right to freedom of speech. This means that by law everyone has the right to say what they think.

Sikh men wear a turban as part of their faith

Key words:

castles

cathedrals

cities

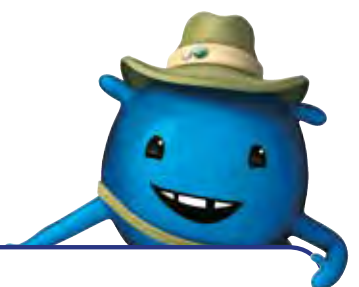

countries

cultures

freedom

religion

speech

UNITED KINGDOM

Where is the UK?

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is in northern Europe. It is just 34 km (21 miles) across the English Channel from France. The UK is its shorter name!

The UK is in northern Europe

One country or four?

The United Kingdom is made up of four smaller countries:

- England
- Wales
- Scotland
- Northern Ireland

They each have their own football and rugby teams, flags, governments and school rules. The UK's Prime Minister is the person in charge. The Queen is the Head of State.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II

Duart Castle, Isle of Mull, Scotland

Human features

The United Kingdom has many cities, including London, Canterbury and Edinburgh. They are home to grand cathedrals, busy shopping centres and large parks. There are also many thousands of smaller towns and villages across the country. The UK has historic castles too.

Physical features

The UK is well-known for its green countryside, national parks and mountains. These places are visited by millions of tourists each year.

You might have heard of some of the most famous: the South Downs, with its white cliffs, the Lake District, Snowdonia and the Scottish Highlands.

Seven Sisters chalk cliffs, South Downs

Animals and birds

There are many different types of wild animals in the UK today. Bats, badgers, foxes, rabbits and river otters can all be found in England. In Scotland lives the red deer. It is a large mammal with impressive antlers.

Red deer

There are more than 500 different types of birds to spot in the UK. The robin, blackbird and magpie are all common birds. There are even wild, green parrots in South London and Surrey!

Many cultures

Over 64 million people live in the United Kingdom. Many of these have strong links to other countries around the world.

Some people living in the UK follow cultural traditions, like wearing clothing, that are linked to their religion.

Sikh men wear a turban as part of their faith

In the UK, people enjoy the right to freedom of speech. This means that by law everyone has the right to say what they think.

Key words:

cathedrals

castles

cities

countries

cultures

freedom

religion

speech

tourists

Check Your Understanding – United Kingdom

1. Which sentences are true and which are false?
Tick the answer.

Sentence	True	False
The United Kingdom is known as 'the UK' for short.	✓
David Cameron is Head of State.
The English Channel is between the UK and France.
Over 64 million people live in the UK.
The robin is a rare bird in the UK.

2. Name the four countries that make up the UK.

3. What does freedom of speech mean?

4. Which of these human features found in the UK is the oldest?
Tick the answer.

shopping centres ☐

parks ☐

cathedrals ☐

castles ☐

5. Draw an animal that lives in the UK.

- 6.

Tell me, Odd, one thing you have learned about the UK that you didn't know before.

Extension Activity: Imagine you are on holiday in the United Kingdom. Write a postcard to Odd and Izzi telling them all about the UK.

Vocabulary Builder – United Kingdom

1. Write the shorter name for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. _____

2. Find two adjectives used to describe any of the UK's physical features.

_____ & _____

3. Draw a line to link each key word to its definition.

Terms	Definitions
Cathedrals	A large settlement where lots of people live
City	The person in charge of the country
Prime Minister	Large, strong churches

4. Circle the adjectives and underline the nouns below.

- a) There are lots of small towns and big cities in the UK.
- b) The red deer is found in Scotland.

5. Choose two of the key words below and write a new sentence for each.

badgers countryside Queen parks

Word	Sentence
Example: Queen	The Queen lives in Buckingham Palace.

6. Make the sentence below more descriptive.

A robin is a bird. → _____

Explore Text Features

1. What type of text is this? How do you know?
Complete the sentences.

This is a(n) _____ text. I know this because _____

2. What is the main title of the text?

3. Find a subtitle and copy it below.

4. How do the subtitles help you understand the text?
Subtitles help me understand the text because _____

5. Draw a new picture and write a caption for it.

6. Why are captions included generally below pictures?

7. Create your own key words! Choose five words from the text that you think are very important.

Key words:

--	--	--	--	--