Purpose - What am I writing this for?

Setting is an environment or surrounding in which an event or story takes place. The setting description allows readers to picture where the story is taking place in their minds whilst they read

[?] adverb	Slowly the car spun around. / Carefully she made her way through the hall.
[?] Where?	At the bottom of the stairs he stopped. / Next to the slide the swings creaked.
[?] When?	At midnight the storm started. / By 7 o'clock they were all exhausted.
-ing verb	Skipping downstairs, Maisy tripped on a toy. / Feeling intense pain, the explorer trudged on.
-ed verb	Stunned, the shark retreated. / Amazed by the sight, the clown fell backwards.
[?] simile	Cool as ice, the robber smashed the alarm. / Like a steam train, he hurtled down the path.
[?] conjunction	Although they were tired, the birds still sang. / Despite the heavy rain, the children still played.

Content - What do I include in my writing?

Feature	Included
1. I have used my 5 senses.
2. I have describes the time of day.
3. I have included the type of weather.
4. I have written in the past tense.
5. I have written in the 3rd person.
6. I have used fronted adverbials.
7. I have used main clauses and subordinate clauses.
8. I have used B.O.B.S
9. I have used similes.

Structure - How do I set my writing out?

The Haunted House

Word Aware Word bank

Workhouse, terrifying, clattering, rough, invaded, smell, noise, underneath, beside, beside, below, musty, gloomy, dark, damp, frightening, horrible, gruel, cruel, thunder, dirty, machines, creeking, boomed,echo, looms,scampering